

Oklahoma Lakes without Mercury Consumption Advisories

The following lakes in Oklahoma have been tested and have low levels of mercury. Fish from these lakes can be eaten often without excessive exposure to mercury.

- Lake Arbuckle
- Lake Arcadia
- Copan Reservoir
- Lake Eucha
- Ft. Gibson Reservoir
- Grand Lake*
- Lake Oologah
- Lake Ponca
- Robert S. Kerr Reservoir
- Sooner Lake
- Lake Spavinaw
- Lake Tenkiller
- Guthrie City Lake
- Hulah Reservoir
- Lake Lawtonka
- Lake Fuqua
- Lake Hudson
- Lake Murray
- Lake Texoma
- Lake Thunderbird
- Tom Steed Reservoir
- Wes Watkins Reservoir
- Zoo Lake (Oklahoma City)

* Grand Lake does not have a mercury advisory, but it is listed on the lead advisory.