Dear Ms. Adler-McKibben:

Barnes & Noble manufactures and sells its product NOOK Color™ (e-reader tablet) in the state of Oklahoma and has determined it to be a covered electronic device as defined in the Oklahoma Computer Equipment Recovery Act.

Please allow this letter to serve as official notification that Barnes & Noble will be participating in the Electronic Manufacturers Recycling Management Co. (MRM) Computer Equipment Collection and Recovery Program effective September 2011.

Please do not hesitate to contact Tricia Conroy, Executive Director of MRM, if you have any questions or concerns about Barnes & Noble's participation in the MRM program in Oklahoma. She can be reached at 612-377-6031 or via email at tricia@MRMrecycling.com.

You may also contact the Barnes & Noble Digital Recycling Program Manager, James Madden at (650) 798-1936 or via email at jmadden@book.com.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Bob Anderson
